Particulars:

Claims Made Policy

This means that the policy covers you for claims made against you and notified to the insurer during the period of cover, irrespective of the date when the cause of action may have occurred.

The policy will not respond to:

- Events or circumstances that occurred prior to the retroactive date, stated in the schedule.
- Claims or circumstances notified prior to inception of the policy.
- Claims or circumstances notified after expiry of the policy.

Where you become aware of facts or circumstances that might give rise to a claim against you, it is imperative that you give notice in writing as soon as reasonably practicable and before expiry of the period of cover. The policy will, subject to its terms and conditions, cover you notwithstanding that a formal claim is not made against you by the third party until after that particular period of insurance has expired.

The above information is only a summary. Please consult your policy document to obtain complete details.
